From the President:

Hello Quilters!

What a fabulous quilt show we presented this year!!! I am still on a high from the entire experience! Every one of the quilts on display was creative and impressive and the exemplary quilts were magnificent!

It was a special treat for me to see 18 youth quilts on display. I had the opportunity to select one of them for the President's award and also to meet the delighted 16-year old who won that award!

We had 9 new vendors at the show this year for your shopping pleasure! Hopefully everyone found that special fabric or item you were looking for!

I was especially interested in whether the new events at the show would be successful. Clearly the answer was, "YES".

- We raised over $6000 from selling tickets for the raffle baskets. Thank you to Darla Orndorff and Kathy O'Brien for all your work in assembling the baskets and coordinating the raffle.
- Sales at the Boutique booths were incredible! On Friday, I saw people standing in line to pay for their items. Grand total in sales at the Boutiques - $2726.
- At the Next Gen booth over 50 youths stopped by to take advantage of the activities offered there. We heard lots of positive comments from attendees about the youth program. Several people actually took pictures of the booth to share with their quilt guilds.
- The QR scan for door prizes at the front entrance allowed us to collect over 500 email addresses of non-members that can be used for future quilt show publicity. Thank you to Jody Edwards and Kimm Murray for setting this up and congratulations to the 6 lucky people who won one of the prizes.

Last, but not least, thanks to all the volunteers who organized the show and worked during the show to make it a success. You are the heart of AQQ and we appreciate each and every one of you.

Each year AQG holds an all-member meeting in the Spring to conduct any required business and to share information about current and future initiatives. We are pleased to announce that the 2024 Spring Meeting will be on Saturday, April 20th at 10:00 AM. It will be a Zoom meeting so that everyone can attend regardless of their location.

We have some interesting things planned for the meeting that we hope will generate some excitement.

First of all, we will have a President's Challenge this year. Those of you who have been members for a number of years may remember that the President's challenge was a regular feature at our Spring meeting. However, when we moved to Zoom meetings, the challenge feature fell by the wayside. This year with a little creative thinking we have come up with a way to do the challenge again.

The President's Challenge for 2024 - Each chapter is challenged to design and create ONE 12 inch finished block that represents their chapter.

At the start of the Spring meeting we will have a chapter role call where a member of each chapter share their chapter's block and tell everyone how it represents their chapter.

All of the blocks that are sent to AQG after the meeting will be displayed in a special exhibit at the 2025 quilt show.

Secondly, we are going to give away several prizes this year.

- 1. Individual Prize - During the meeting, the names of 3 attendees will be chosen at random. Each winner will receive free AQG membership for one year beginning July 1, 2024.
- 2. Chapter Prize - Any chapter that arranges for a "viewing party" with 5 or more people will receive a nice bin of free fabric.

More information about the Spring meeting plus the agenda will be shared at the end of March. if you have any specific topics you would like us to address or any interesting ideas for the meeting, please send them to Eva Kilgore at president@aqgmail.org.

Card Tricks of the White Mountains

submitted by Cheryl Holtz

We had good attendance at our March meeting, even with the chance of rain and snow coming.

The meeting started with pricing the goods to be sold at the Mesa AQG Quilt Show. We are excited to be having a booth in the show. Monies earned will help with our service projects quilts.

The education for the day was by Cathy, our Art Quilter, talking about Color Theory. There is a lot to learn about color selection in a quilt. She gave us color wheel samples as well as references. We practiced with fabric samples learning the color properties

Show n Tell ranged from St Patrick's Day table runners to an authentic 1930 - 1940 quilt top to a variety of other beautiful quilts.

Cholla Quilters of Mesa

submitted by Diane Hannaford

Cholla Quilters of Mesa began the 2024-year full steam starting with the installation of new officers in January, as follows:

- Pam Wallace, President
- Karen Weaver & Pam Shields, Vice Presidents
- Marianne Nowacki, Secretary
- Barbara Aldrich, Treasurer
- Deb Chapman, Membership
- Liz Daggett, Member-at-Large

The 2024 year's schedule is packed with various "learn" modules, project classes, Charity Sew days, guest speakers, and Chapter challenges. Also, "Chat'n Sew on Zoom" meetings are another Chapter activity scheduled throughout the year to promote fellowship, exchange ideas, laugh and enjoy our craft together when we are not having in-person meetings.

In January, Pam W presented the President's Challenge of creating a project using the KONA 2024 Cotton Fabrics Color of the Year "Julep." Final projects will be revealed at the November business meeting. The January through March learning modules included, Jelly Roll patterns, flying geese demos, rope bowls, and guest speaker, Jennifer Johnson, the new owner of Quilters Oasis.

In February a Charity Sew day was held to make quilt tops using the pattern, "The Disappearing Four-Patch." The group was also presented with a "Name Tag Challenge." Each member was given a fabric with their name embroidered on it, and the challenge of creating a name tag of any shape, size, or pattern. Those who present their completed Name Tag at the May business meeting will be entered into a drawing for exciting prizes!

Copper Country Quilters of Globe

submitted by Ellen Kretsch

The Pieces of Friendship quilt show is one for the books and the Copper Country Quilters in Globe did their usual outstanding job. Hope you were able to visit the Cobre Valley Center for the Arts to enjoy the exhibit.

Who knows how a judge can decide with all the wonderful entries, but Elaine Putnam and Marueen Pastika from Payson did a wonderful job, and that comes from a non-ribbon winner! Elyse Bingham, a youth entrant from the 4-H program, won a special youth award and went on to win Viewer's Choice. Congratulations, Elyse! If you missed the show, you'll have a chance to see several of the Copper Country Quilters' work at the upcoming state show. Don't miss it.

Spring is here, or so close it doesn't matter. And while every season is quilt retreat season, spring is especially good for a trip to Pinetop to visit Frances at Arizona Creative Connections. We have a full house heading up in early April; here's hoping those spring temps will get the creative juices flowing.

Members will be heading to the state show this month. In the meantime, here are some of the lovely entries from our Pieces of Friendship show. Next up in Globe is the Poppy Fest the month of April. If you have never come our way and seen the showy golden poppies, it's looking like this year will be a stunner.

Cutlines:

Peggy Porter took the David Sirora paper piecing class last year and entered her New Hampshire Beauty project, which took home a Judge's Choice ribbon.

Maria Melendez quilted this tribute My Five Sister and won the ribbon for Best Use of Color. No argument here!

Elyse Bingham is a 4-H member and her entry of her first quilt which featured a horse panel and lovely machine quilting of horses by Rob Schultz.

Enthusiasm blew through the room at our March 1st meeting! There were tables with project workshops to sign up to make items to sell at the annual Autumnfest, our major fundraiser.

Debbie Ament presented a trunk show in preparation for her Laura Heine technique class, which was well-attended and a barrel of fun! Liz reported on QuiltCon and showed us some of the modern quilts that were on display.

Block Two of the celestial BOMs was shown as well as Show N Tell, where there were many wonderful projects to inspire us further. Our raffle basket for the meeting was full of luscious fabrics and tools and was won by a totally unsuspecting member! Surprise! We also give prizes for wearing your nametag, having a birthday, and a Fat Quarter Bonanza where one lucky gal can take home a stash of themed fat quarters. This month was Dr. Seuss fabrics! Refreshments were served and everyone had a great time yakking with all their quilty friends!

Foothills Quilters of Glendale

submitted by Carol Paul

It's March already and the AQQ quilt show is right around the corner. Vice Chair, Nancy Pitts, advised that volunteers are still needed and volunteering means free admission. Some members have already signed up to volunteer. Nancy asked if anyone had entered a quilt or quilts and one member had.

Our April meeting will be the annual potluck. The Potluck Committee has been busy putting together party favors, which are almost complete. Members should bring their dishes between 10:00 and 10:30 and then go to the sanctuary for the presentation. Kelly from Cactus Quilts will be talking about how she makes batiks and will have FQs of designs she's done for sale at $2 each.

The program was an introduction to EPP given by member Lynn Pinda. Lynn told how she got started doing EPP and showed some of the tools she has found helpful, as well as some of the work she has done. She passed around kits she had put together so members could try their hand at this method.

Havasu Stitchers

submitted by Susan George

It's time again for Havasu Stitchers' share and tell.

Sew, I'm gonna tell you about our exciting community project led by our very own, Terrie Eller. Sew here goes, as a group, we have obligated our time and talents to making 100 quilts each of our Lake Havasu City Firefighters. Each quilt measures 70" x 90" and will provide comfort and warmth to each firefighter's bed in Lake Havasu City's 6 fire stations. Each quilt will have a lovely, embroidered label attached expressing our thanks for the selfless dedication each firefighter provides our community. And each quilt will be presented in an equally lovely pillowcase. We anticipate having all 100 completed by mid-October, giving us the opportunity to present them to the firefighters in November. The attached pictures are just a few of the quilts already completed.

Now, on to the happenings of last night's meeting. Phyllis Barton presented an interesting and informative talk about Amish Quilts. She told us of their origin in the Lancaster, Pennsylvania area and the migration through Ohio and westward through the mid-west. The slide show presented examples of pattern and color. A thank you is extended to Susan Black for sharing her lovely Amish Quilt.

As we all know, it's getting to be migration time. Sew, we want to tell our heat fleeing quilting flock... "We pray you have a safe journey "home" and we'll see you in the fall (or whenever you return) with tales of your summer quilting exploits."

Well, I guess that's all for now. Sew, I'll close with Happy Quilting and we look forward to catching up next time.

Nimble Thimbles of Chandler

Gina Perkes, owner of the Copper Needle in Payson, was our featured guest speaker for our first meeting of February. An award winning quilter, long-garmer and author, Gina gave a dynamic lecture on her own quilting history and use of longarm techniques. She showcased her own quilts showing her development. Ever-popular Show 'n Tell proved our in-house creativity. And our Sew-in at Sweet Pzs, is providing us with a daytime opportunity to socialize and be creative. Our Sew-in is open to all who wish to come and occurs on the second Saturday of every month. Group and individual projects are welcome. Cost is a nominal fee, per person, to Sweet Pzs.

Our second in-person meeting featured Madonna from Mad B's showcasing Madonna's Favorite Things. Madonna led us on a lively tour of her favorite tools both old and new-to-the-shop. Especially the mini iron with a head light! In addition to new tools, she brought us up to date on new fabrics and classes. In addition to our regular meetings and Sew-in, our Jo Sutliff graciously hosted the TGIF quilting and crafting collectives at the Downtown Chandler Library in The Makery Room on February 9th and the 23rd. These creative collectives are open to all and any project that can be done cleanly and indoors is welcome. These collectives are held every 2nd and 4th Friday of the month.

Rippers of Mesa

submitted by Wendy Beesley

March Madness prevails for the Rippers as the recent meeting was a flurry of fast-paced presentations and activities “My Home” challenge projects were presented for review and winner selected and oh my what a task that was. Winners were as follows Lucy Wong for Best Representation of Home with her lovely true to life picture. Jeri Meacham won the Best Overall with her homes throughout her life. Daniele Tanner and Paulette Smith both tied and received Participation Awards. Each awardee has a delightful tale to share about their homes and growing up in the land of the free and international locations.

Charity with the Rippers is very multifaceted as the Committee has been very diligent in finding locations with needs to match our diverse skills. Adult smocks (aka clothes protectors), pillowcases, walker bags and of course beautiful quilts are the products of this group.

Challenges for the upcoming year were discussed and selected to include a Fat Quarter Challenge due in January, and a Star Challenge due in March. The Christmas exchange this year will be a Table Runner/ Topper. I am sure most in our group will get right on making these items to have them ready at the appropriate time.

Also, Class Project ideas were presented by Jeri and selections made by all. The projects selected were as follows. Stand up Gnomes, three-dimension pieced Christmas Tree, Steering Wheel Cover (what a great idea for us desert dwellers), Table Topper using the Tangles method, and a Charms on Point Quilt. Members of our talented group will teach all classes.

All were reminded by President June about the big AQG March show and other various shows being held locally. March is such an extremely quilt oriented month we all should be remarkably busy.

Strawberry Patchers of Payson/Pine/Strawberry

submitted by Jane Wilcox

March, 2024 for the April Chatter

The month of February is always a busy one for the Patchers! We designate every Thursday in February to work on community projects. The goal is to make Easter bags and Christmas stockings for the children. It's sew much fun to make these, knowing that the kids love them! Thanks to all that participated, we exceeded our goal, and now have a surplus!! This wraps up another productive February for the Strawberry Patchers!

The Show Committee for the Strawberry Patcher quilt show are actively working on 2024. The theme this year is "Every Quilt Tells a Story". We have planned a bed turning of antique & vintage quilts. Each one will have a story behind it. More than just antique quilts, even the quilts we make today all have a story about it. It takes a village to present our little show! There are vendors, door prizes, drawings every 30 minutes for great prizes. We feature small displays throughout the show area that are informative and visually appealing. Additionally, we collect food for the food bank; and if you bring a can of food, you're entered to win a lap quilt.

The real purpose of this show is to showcase some of the most beautiful quilts around Rim Country from Payson, Strawberry, Pine, and Happy Jack... however; all are more than welcome to enter our Viewer's Choice Show! We'll be accepting entries on our website: www.strawberrypatchers.com beginning April 8th, and entries closing on May 8th. Physical Intake will be at the Community Center in Pine on Thursday, June 6th. Make note that the show dates are Friday, June 7th through Saturday, June 8th 9am-4pm both days. Viewer's Choice voting is only on Friday. It makes for a wonderful day trip up to the mountains! Admission is $5.00.

Many of the Patchers are excited for our annual retreat/camp in March. Our retreat consists of sewing, learning, laughing, fun and games. Indeed it is something we look forward to every year. And, of course- What happens at Quilt Camp, Stays at Quilt Camp!

We invite you to join with us the first Thursday of the month – 9:00am social time, 9:30 is meeting time at the Pine Community Center in the Library Annex. The 3rd Thursday of the month is reserved for members. We use this day for activities, classes, sewing & learning.
