Gifts, Grants and Donations

Policy

In accordance with the Arizona Quilters Guild mission to promote, sponsor and contribute to the quilting knowledge of our members and the community, AQG was awarded their 501(c)3 designation based upon educational activities. In addition, the guild policy is that no one member will benefit from a gift or donation to the exclusion of other members. The following policy and procedure shall govern the award of gifts, grants, and donations. The misuse of gifts, grants, and donations may jeopardize the 502(c)3 status of AQG.

Gifts: AQG members will not purchase gifts using AQG or Chapter funds for Board Members, Committee Members, members, guest speakers, or quilt show judges above $25.00. AQG Board Members will not accept gifts from merchants, affiliate members, or vendors.

Grants: The grant(s) to individuals must align with AQG's exempt purpose of education. The Chapter must set up a set of criteria and a process that provides a more objective result and precludes any claims of favoritism for those related to the organization.

Donations: No Member of AQG shall solicit a donation for an AQG function without the prior approval of the Board.

Refer to the AQG Policy and Procedures, section 29 for specific procedures.

Chapter Use of Fund-Raising

The following policy is designed to help clarify how Chapter funds from fund-raising activities involving the public, those obtained within the Chapter itself, and those obtained through an AQG Charitable Mini-Grant are managed:

Chapter Fund Raising - AQG Policy

- Monies received from the public through fund-raising or granting methods, e.g. opportunity quilts, sale of boutique items, raffles, funds or foundation grants, etc., must be used by the Chapter for Chapter activities consistent with the 501(c)(3) designation of Arizona Quilters Guild. These activities are limited to philanthropic projects and educational opportunities that are directed toward the public or are available to the entire Chapter.
- Examples:
 - With funds received/solicited from the public, a Chapter may:
 - hire a teacher and pay for the facility that is available to all members
 - pay for a room and supplies to work on charity quilts
 - pay expenses for attending the AQG-mandated Chapter Leadership Meeting
 - With funds received/solicited from the public, a Chapter may not
 - pay for a facility or room and board to work on UFOs or personal projects
 - pay for a Christmas party or year-end dinner event
 - hire a bus and go to a quilt show
- Monies received through internal Chapter fund-raising, e.g. Chapter dues, UFO sales, silent auctions, etc., may be used for any Chapter activities such as luncheons, retreats, parties, etc. Chapter monies should always be used to benefit the whole membership, not individuals, unless a demonstrable service is being provided to the entire Chapter by this expenditure.

Accountability

Funds accrued and expenditures by the Chapter must be accounted for properly and reported to the AQG Treasurer in periodic reports.

Receiving Donations Procedures

At times an AQG Chapter will receive a donation from a member of the community, a guild member, a corporation or non-profit organization, etc.

Section 4-Liability Insurance

Policies

The purpose of liability insurance is to protect the Arizona Quilters Guild financially when the Guild is responsible for someone else's personal injury or property damage. AQG maintains general liability insurance to provide that protection to its members.

- The AQG Liability Insurance Policy, issued by The Hartford Insurance Company, provides liability insurance coverage not only to all members of AQG, but also to volunteers and guests, while they are attending an AQG or AQG Chapter meeting or event.
- Retreats, quilt shows, classes, charity sew-ins, open house gatherings, and any other AQG- or chapter-sponsored activity qualify as a meeting or event.
- Some venues may request an insurance certificate naming them as an additional insured. If so, follow the procedure below to obtain the insurance certificate.

Procedure

1. Log on to the AQG website and go to Resources, Documents. Scroll down to Insurance Request and click on the link to the online form.
2. Complete the form and submit it.
3. The request will be routed to a Board member who will send it to the AQG insurance agent.
4. The agent will complete the request and send the insurance certificate via email to the individual who requested the certificate.

Additional information

The insurance coverage for a venue does not carry over from one AQG fiscal year (July 1 – June 30) to the next. It must be requested each year.

Events that may require an insurance certificate include (but are not limited to)

- Quilt show
- Quilt auction
- Charity work day
- Classes by national educators, traveling teachers, or member-led classes at a time different than a regular meeting
- Retreats
- Quilt camp for young quilters

When a third party (chartered or leased bus) is providing transportation for an AQG group to an AQG event, a certificate of insurance from that company naming AQG as “additional insured” must be submitted at least two weeks before the trip.

Section 5 Education

Education Program

The AQG education's program goal is to provide educational opportunities to members at the state and chapter level. The state brings in national educators, has an AQG teacher network and maintains a list of speakers willing to speak at chapter events.

The national teacher expenses are subsidized by AQG as part to the AQG membership benefits.

Additionally, each chapter is encouraged to develop their educational programs based on their group's needs.

More information is available on the AQG website (www.azquiltersguild.org).

AQG Speakers Bureau

The AQG Speaker Bureau is to be utilized by anyone looking to find a speaker or teacher. This is a list of known speakers and topics. These speakers are not required to be a member or affiliate of AQG.

Arrangements and fees are to be made directly by the chapter or member.

AQG does not endorse the speakers as this is for information only.

Section 6-Communications

Public Communication Policy

Chapters in good standing are required to display their association with the Arizona Quilters Guild on all printed publications, including webpage, Facebook, Instagram, Quilt show publicity, etc.

The display will be presented as:

“(name of chapter)”
“a chapter of the Arizona Quilters Guild”

Meetings of the Membership

Policy

All members are encouraged to attend the Annual Membership Meetings of the Guild: Annual reports of the Executive Officers, the Board of Directors, and any special committees shall be presented at these meetings. A summary of the reports will be published in the newsletter and the meeting minutes will be published on the website.

To Obtain a Chapter Charter

- If desired, AQG Board members will meet with a prospective group and answer any questions about affiliation with the Arizona Quilters Guild.
- Once the group understands the requirements and benefits of AQG membership, and all members desire to formalize their commitment, an application and a letter requesting Charter status must be sent to the AQG Board.
